

Silvia Giannini
Independent Director

Silvia Giannini (Ferrara, 1952) has been an independent Director of CIR since June 2020.

She was an independent board member of CIR (before the merger of COFIDE) from 2011 to 2019.

She is an economist, trained at the University of Bologna (degree in Political Science in 1976) and Cambridge University.

She has been Full Professor of the Science of Finance at Bologna University since 1993 and author of numerous Italian and international publications on fiscal matters.

She is a member of the Treasury Ministry Committee on “fiscal expenditures”.

She is on the board of Aeroporto di Bologna S.p.A. and a member of the board of governors of the Monte di Bologna e Ravenna. She is also on the board of governors of the Il Mulino association.

Previously, she was an associate professor at the University of Cagliari, staff teacher of the Science of Finance at the Superior School of Public and contract teacher of the Science of Finance in the Law faculty of the Luiss Guido Carli University of Roma.