

Maria Serena Porcari
Independent director

Maria Serena Porcari (Premosello-Chiovenda - Verbano-Cusio-Ossola, 1971) has been an independent director of CIR (formerly COFIDE) since April 2016.

She is Executive Chairman of Fondazione Dynamo Camp Onlus and Chairman and Chief Executive of Dynamo Academy Srl Impresa Sociale.

She is on the Board of Directors of Milan's Bocconi University, Intek S.p.A., the Associazione Serious Fun Children's Network, the Fondazione Hospice MT Chiantore Seràgnoli Onlus, a member of the Scientific Committee for Sustainability advising the Board of Directors of ICCREA Gruppo Bancario and member of the General Board of the Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Pistoia e Pescia.

She began her professional career in 1994 in venture capital. She worked for IBM Italia (from 1995 to 2004).

She graduated cum laude in Business Economics from the Bocconi University (Milan) and is a Certified Public Accountant. She obtained an MBA from the Henley Management School, UK, and a CEMS Master in International Management.